Also in attendance: John Huggett, Laurie Calbaum, Graham Westley, Rebecca Mork, Andrew Joseph, Kyle Moore, Jeremy Struss, Melissa Thompson, Nick Kent of PRA and Dan Davis of C.G. Schmidt.

CALL TO ORDER

The work session began at 7:02 a.m.

DISCUSSION

The School Board reviewed a prioritized capital improvement project list and discussed funding for referendum projects as well as longer-term maintenance items. Key schedule milestones for these projects were also reviewed.

Fine Arts teachers provided a Curriculum and Programmatic Review implementation update including what was learned through this process, what has been new in Fine Arts programming as a result of the review process, how our Fine Arts department integrates with community programs and information about the Fine Arts extracurricular offerings.

The board concluded the work session by discussing the results from its self-evaluation and requested administration schedule meetings to meet with elected representatives and agendaize legislative advocacy for further discussion at the regular March board meeting.

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting was adjourned at 8:35 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Melissa Thompson
