As of today, and with the information available from the Parent Reopening Update meetings as well as the information sent to you over the weekend, ...ibes your preference for your child in September?

425 responses

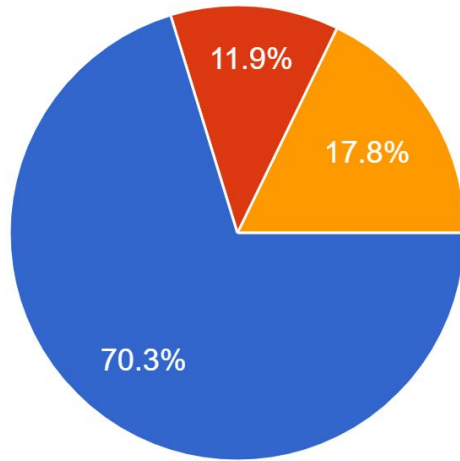

- I prefer to send my child back to school face-to-face for five days a week this Fall.
- I prefer NOT to send my child back for face-to-face instruction this Fall. We will opt for virtual instruction for a minimum of one semester.
- I am still undecided at this time.

If masks or face coverings ARE required for students, which mode of instruction would you feel is the best fit for your child and/or family?
