

ARROWHEAD WARHAWK CHEER HOMECOMING CLINIC

AHS is excited to bring back our annual Homecoming cheerleading clinic and performance! Arrowhead cheerleading coach Jessica Herriges, along with members of our AHS Cheer program, will lead the clinic on September 24th. Clinic participants will learn cheers, stunts, a dance, jumps, and tumbling which they will perform in the AHS Homecoming Game Pre-Game and 1st quarter on Friday October 1st (meeting time TBD, game begins at 7 p.m.). Parents and friends are welcome to attend (2 admission tickets to the AHS Homecoming Game included with registration). Participants and families are invited to stay after their performance to watch the High School cheerleaders perform throughout the rest of the Arrowhead Homecoming Football Game.

All participants should be in good physical health, as they will experience strenuous days of cheerleading. Please come with NO JEWELRY, in athletic attire, athletic shoes, a bottled water, and hand sanitizer. September/October Covid guidelines will be followed.
