

Learn from WATG experts about key themes in raising and supporting your gifted child(ren).

Possible topics include:

- Supporting your gifted child
- How to advocate in schools
- Ways GT students can get support in school
- Social & emotional development
- Twice Exceptionality (2E)
- Early Childhood
- Games, Toys & Other Interests

PARENTS, JOIN US SUNDAY, OCTOBER 2ND

“Parent to Parent: Sharing Your Wisdom”
Jackie and Dal Drummer

Parenting gifted kids can be both a joy and a challenge. Sometimes gifted children and their parents/caregivers feel alone as they navigate life's ups and downs. This session, “Parent to Parent: Sharing Your Wisdom” is a chance for parents to share their parenting experiences and advice, to give and receive comfort, and discover resources that will help them on their journey. It will be facilitated by Dal and Jackie Drummer, who are SENG (Supporting the Emotional Needs of Gifted) national trainers and facilitators. Together they have over 100 years of teaching, parenting, and grandparenting, and have facilitated numerous groups nationally. Come to learn, come to share, and come to gain tools to help you as you grow along with your child. Many parents and caregivers report that this workshop has given them additional insight, sensitivity, and confidence.

Details

Where: Wilderness Resort Wisconsin Dells

When: 9:00 am - 4:00 pm

Cost: Parent (non-educator) Sunday Only $60

Parent (non-educator) 3-day event $200

Visit <https://watg22.sched.com/tickets> to purchase tickets

Lodging information can also be found on the WATG conference website

This is not a school-sponsored activity and the Swallow School District does not provide support or endorsement of this program/activity. It has neither reviewed nor approved the program, personnel, or activities announced in this brochure/flyer. Permission to distribute this material must not be considered a recommendation or endorsement by the school district.