Under in the Mud (PB & HC)
Written by Laureanna Raymond-Duvernell
Illustrated by Mara C. Williams

ABOUT THE BOOK

"Where do animals go in the winter?" many often wonder: it is a natural curiosity about the cycle of nature right outside our doors. Under in the Mud introduces ten different animals and how they survive winter's cold temperatures. With rhyming verses, readers of all ages can find actions that mirror their own seasonal habits. Based on the folksong "Over in the Meadow," this book lends itself to equal parts reading, counting, and singing while discovering the lives of animals often unseen during half of the year.

FREE EXTRAS IN THE BOOK!

Back matter is included to foster additional curiosity about the amazing ways that nature adapts to cold climates. A perfect addition to a winter reading collection!

MIDDLE GRADE NOVELS Grades 4+

ARIES: Book One in the ZODIAC DOZEN SERIES

by Oliver Bestul

ABOUT THE BOOK

Aaron has always considered himself a pretty normal kid: enjoying normal hobbies, attending a normal seventh-grade class, and living in the normal neighborhood of Bay View in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The only difference between him and the other twelve-year-olds in town? A mysterious dream of landing in Lake Michigan from outer space that visits him once a year. Well, that, and the fact that he has a super-powered forehead - but everyone's got their quirks, right?

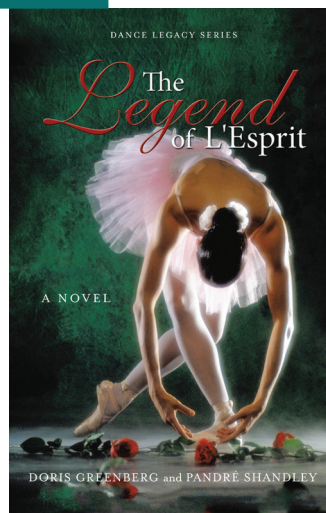

Though he's never thought much of his yearly dream, some advice from his father causes Aaron to look into it. Could it be some sort of memory? Could the key to understanding it be at the bottom of the lake? Soon, his search introduces him to scuba diver duo Darius and Sierra. Turns out, Aaron might not be the only one who's ever had the dream - or who has special powers - as his two new friends seem oddly familiar with both already.

With the constellations as their guide, the friends begin to suspect that there might be even more of their kind - twelve different kids, each with their own star-powered ability! Now, it's just a matter of finding the other nine; thus begins the formation of the Zodiac Dozen!

The Legend of L'Esprit

Book One in the Dance Legacy Series

by Doris Greenberg and Pandre Shandley

New to Chicago, 15-year-old Libby Nobleton stands outside the city's premier studio, L'Esprit. Having studied French in school, she fluently pronounces the word "le spree" and knows it means "the spirit." Instantly drawn to the century old landmark, Libby senses a kindred connection. A touch of the bronze plaque memorializing her ballet idol, Daniella Devereaux, sends shivers racing through her body. From the windows above, someone secretly watches. And in the studio's forbidden basement, pleading whispers grow stronger.

Chasing the Spotlight

Book Two in the Dance Legacy Series

by Doris Greenberg and Pandre Shandley

When Chicagoland's top-rated high school dancers, Libby, C.C., and Brooke, travel to New York City for the national Stairway to the Stars competition, touristy thrills and new romances are soon overshadowed by a chilling disappearance.
