

Zoey Isabella Sweezy Presents... Behind the Curtain

the Tooth Fairy

A journalistic Investigation

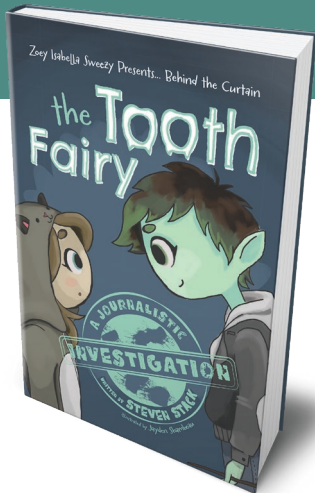

“For anyone who needs a little wonder in their lives, Behind the Curtain: The Tooth Fairy is for you. Written as journal entries, Zoey, a delightful, creative, curious child, investigates the question ‘Why does the Tooth Fairy collect the teeth of children and pay for them?’ This book is laugh-out-loud funny with an ending that will bring tears to your eyes. Creative, engaging, thoughtful, and beautifully illustrated, this is a story of the Tooth Fairy unlike any you’ve heard before.”

– Dawn Peters, coach at Prairie Elementary School

“In this humorous tale, full of asides, an inquisitive girl named Zoey makes it her mission to determine why the tooth fairy collects teeth. The illustrations deepen the experience, drawing the reader first into Zoey’s journal and then transporting them on a magical journey alongside her. Zoey is quirky and relatable, and will inspire readers to assuage their curiosities with investigations of their own.”

– Brittany Phelps, the LMTC (librarian) Director at Prairie Elementary School.

Why would anyone pay money for someone else’s teeth?

Zoey Isabella Sweezy has been participating in this “teeth for coinage” thing with the Tooth Fairy for as long as she’s had teeth that don’t stay in her mouth. But now, at 10, which is quite the questioning age, she wants to know why. So, as any good investigator does, she sets out to find the answer once and for all. And, with the help of her loyal sidekick Ralph the Cat, Zoey uncovers the truth of the Tooth Fairy. A truth that she could have never dreamed up, even in her best dreams.
